The 6th District:

Nutter
Bednarek
Dougherty
Henon

Used Tires Make Great Potato Patch

PLANTING SPUDS works well in used tires, as demonstrated by Ruth Elliott and Marcella Smith, members of Liberty Resources who are volunteering their efforts to make city vacant lots more community-friendly. Nonprofit group is hoping to see State and City legislation passed making it easier to assemble many small parcels into huge lots for development and community use.

Bon Jovi Funds A Nice Day

MAYOR MICHAEL NUTTER and rock star Jon Bon Jovi join Kevin Ryan, left, and Cordella Hill, executive members of Covenant House in Kensington to cut ribbon at $3.1 million "Right of Passage" -- a transitional-living program funded in part by Jon Bon Jovi Soul Foundation. Facility will be shared by 20 formerly homeless young people at 2625 Kensington Avenue. Photo by Rory G McGlasson
